100 DEAD IN OMAHA;
FATALITIES TOTAL 150

More than 90 bodies have already been recovered from the ruins of the storm in this city.

Nearly 100 people in Omaha, and a total of about 150 in the surrounding territory, were killed in the tornado that swept through the city.

More than ninety bodies have been recovered in Omaha, and the death list is constantly increasing.

MONSTER CROSSES CITY IN BOISTEROUS FURY

Entering at Forty-Eighth and Center, it carries its terror through to Cut-Off Lake.

In bringing to Omaha the unforgettable destruction of the storm, the tornado was constantly giving small twisters which acted as flakers with the deadly intent of making a clean sweep of the city, leaving only ruins.

Extinction will not be known for days.

People responded to the call for aid and took shelter in the storm.

CITY APPROPRIATES $25,000 FOR RELIEF

And a Citizens' Committee to the Number of Fifty is Appointed to Have Charge of the Work.

CHAIRMAN FOR THE SUB-COMMITTEE

Popular Subscription Started With Large Sums—State Assistance Is Very Likely.

Systematic relief work to meet the pressing needs of the thousands of homeless victims of the tornado was under way at a meeting of citizens at the council chamber in the city hall this morning. It was decided to appeal to the city council for the purpose of passing an enabling act or the incorporation of an Omaha-made immediately available.

A relief committee of fifty was organized, and a general meeting was held. Among the early subscriptions to the relief fund were the following:

The Union Pacific Railroad Company, $5,000; Omaha Street Railway Company, $5,000; the Omaha Gas Company, $2,500 to $5,000; the Omaha National Bank, $1,000; and the United States, $5,000.

The Northwestern Railway has given $1,000, and the Krug Brewing Company $1,000.

Towline Out for Broken Homes—Grab It and Help Omaha

A partial list of the injured.

A tremendous disaster has befallen the people of Omaha. A hundred and more people have been killed, hundreds have been injured, thousands are homeless, and property has been destroyed.

There is serious and present need of immediate relief to hundreds of families through death and injury and deprived of their homes. Many of these have no other resources from which to draw, and calling whether there was need of assistance, each individual, collective reader.

Therefore the World-Herald appeals to the public for subscriptions.

To contribute liberally to a "Relief Fund." The World-Herald hereby lists the names of those who have contributed $1,000 as its own contribution. All subscriptions from other sources will be gladly received and turned over to the proper authorities for administration, and the list of contributors will be published daily.

It was not alone the fine, but the entire Omaha area, that was hard hit. The city and surrounding towns were completely devastated.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Quickley offer the following, in addition to their personal subscriptions.
